Creative Commons Licenses

A Creative Commons (CC) license is one of several public copyright licenses that enable the free distribution of an otherwise copyrighted work. A CC license is used when an author wants to give people the right to share, use, and build upon a work that they have created. You do not need to grant a creative commons license. Be sure ‘I choose not to apply a Creative Commons License’ is selected above if you choose not to grant one.

License Conditions

(Creators choose a set of conditions they wish to apply to their work.)

ตัวเองAvatarUserAvatar20CircleIcon20Outline.png Attribution (by)

Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license. All CC licenses require that others who use your work in any way must give you credit the way you request, but not in a way that suggests you endorse them or their use. If they want to use your work without giving you credit or for endorsement purposes, they must get your permission first. For license details, see https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/
